

Harry E. Brakebill

Distinguished Professor Award

2009/10

Full-time and lecturer faculty may be nominated by colleagues, students, and/or staff. The awardee is chosen on the basis of “outstanding contributions to their students, to their academic disciplines, and to the campus communities.”

Individuals interested in nominating a professor should contact that professor and ascertain their willingness to be nominated. The individual nominating a distinguished professor must formally submit a letter which substantiates the nomination. This letter should state how you know the nominee, her/his qualifications, and (for students) the courses you have taken from the nominee.

Nominations Due: Thursday, May 7th*

(your formal letter may be submitted as an e-mail attachment to senate@csusm.edu)

Acceptance Letters Due: Thursday, May 14th*

Dossiers Due: Thursday, September 3rd*

*To the Academic Senate office, University Hall 451, by 4 p.m.

For more information, visit the Academic Senate’s website: www.csusm.edu/academic_senate/